The stery as given in the Sentinel is over five columns in length, and we have only room to say that on the 12th, of September, 1876, Isaac Newland, a merchant of Maysville, in Allen county, was foully murdered and robbed. A reward of $500 was offered by the board of commissioners of Allen county for the arrest and conviction of the murderers, yet no clue has been found to the perpetrators of the deed, until now, it is claimed that Mary Durer under promise of getting half the reward has stated, that Mr. Newland was murdered by a man who resides in Maysville, John Garmeyer, Perry Tracy and herself.
